Minutes of Mentor Mentee Committee Meeting

A meeting of the mentor mentee committee for the month of November, 2022 was held in the School of Physics at 3 p.m. on 10-12-2022.

The students were of the view that there should be more time two minor examinations. They also expressed their concern about less number of classes after minor II because of holidays and hence less preparation time for major exams. Few students wanted improvement in the food quality served in the hostel mess in the boy's hostel.

Issues students are facing right now either in the hostel or in the campus:

- Mess food. } 20iby002, 20iby005
- Drinking water. } 20iby003, 20iby004
- Power cut off during exams in hostels (20iby003, 20iby004)
- Proper cleanliness of water (immediate action needs to be taken) 20ibpy002 (002^{ib} 005)
- Connectivity of wi-fi in department
- Why only girls require HOD's sign on gatepass.
even if they are supposed to leave on Friday before 5 pm while it is not a requirement for boys? (20iby003, 20iby004)
- Why gate-2 is closed? (20iby002) (005 impy010 049)
⇓
Just because of consumption of alcohol and tobacco.
But still those things are going on in excess.

10. Chakshita Thakur	21iby008
11. Diksha Kumari	21iby010
12. Digvijay Singh	21MPY013	Digvijay

Point-wise details of the issues raised and discussed:

1. The Students, particularly from M.Sc. Physics Sem-II, strongly complained about the difficulty faced by them in attending online classes. They also complained that the experiments at M.Sc. level could not be grasped and understood completely in Virtual Lab Mode. They all requested to hold the offline classes in the Campus.

The Matter was communicated and discussed with Head, SoP Dr.Sunil K. Wanchoo for necessary action.

2. The students complained that the syllabi of different courses were not covered fully during the Ist semester.

The students were told that it is, sometimes, not possible to cover the full syllabi during the semester when the classes are being held online. However, they were assured to compensate for the same in the subsequent semesters.

3. The M.Sc.-II students requested that they shall be provided recorded version of the lectures.

The matter was communicated to the concerned faculty members and Head, SoP for necessary action.
