Sunita Sharma (19MMM035)	M.Sc.(1 st Sem.)	Anjali Bhagat (18MMM042)	M.Sc.(3 rd Sem.)

The outcomes of the interaction are as follows:

1. The students told that they all are getting the lecture notes and relevant study material through email or WhatsApp from all the class teachers. They have also given the link of relevant video lectures from the SWAYAM and NPTEL.
2. The students were satisfied with the efforts of the teachers in the existing scenario and their studies.
3. The students of M.Sc.(3rd Sem.) had some concern regarding their Minor project as they were facing some problem to download some research papers at 2G network in view of restrictions on some websites. To address this issue they were advised to contact their concerned project guide to get the papers and send them through email.

During the meeting following issues raised by the mentees:

1. Mentee ask common questions that what is the mode of the examination Mid Semester and Major examination? Mentor informed all mentees that university authority decided that examination of M.Sc. (Mathematics) students through offline mode whereas the examination of Integrated M.Sc. (Mathematics) students will be in online mode.
2. All mentee shows their concern that the new time table for online classes are lengthy and cumbersome to concentrate in all classes through mobile.
3. Some mentee expresses their concern that uses of their mobile data, it is not possible to attend five or six classes/laboratory daily.
4. Also, some of them are facing the problem of internet issue during their online classes and also ask to the mentor, when classes will start in the university in offline mode. Mentees informed by the mentor that university planned to call the students in some phases starting with PhD and PG students after that UG students will call to join the university.
5. The students of Integrated programs raise some doubts about the course like what are the provision of exit after UG and join the PG program in same or other institutions/university. Mentor clear the doubts of all such mentee and they were satisfied
