Vision -

The workshop aims to craft a model of national cohesion that celebrates difference as its organizing principle, not its obstacle. By foregrounding India's mother tongues—as mediums of learning, modes of citizenship, and mirrors of civilizational depth.

Topics -

- Knowledge and Memory
- Pedagogy and Democracy
- Technology and Futures
- Mother Tongue as Method
- Oral cosmology, indigenous archives, and cross-script literatures
- Round-table with NEP architects and state education boards
